Sir,

In submitting herewith a Refund bill for Rs 4-8-0 in favour of one B. Krishna Rau, Paiki Khatedar of Siregambur village, Shikarpur Taluk, I have the honour to state that on the 5th February 1900, the said Khatedar remitted to the Shikarpur Taluk Treasury, by by Money Order, a sum of Rs 4-8-0 on account of the proportionate Kandayam due by him for 1899-1900. The amount was duly received and credited in the Taluk Treasury. The Shekdar also collected the Kandayam for the same year from the said Khatedar's tenants at Hiregambur and credited it to Treasury. The Amildar reports that the double recovery and credit was due to the carelessness of the Taluk Officials.

Under the circumstances I request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the refund and transmit the bill to the Comptroller for audit.

The Vernacular papers ending with the 2nd Assistant Commissioner's No 347 Dated 14th February 1903 are herewith submitted for reference and kind return when no longer required.
